ABOUT BEING A DIRECTOR

Here’s what you can expect from our Association, and what will be expected from you, if you’re elected or appointed to the Board.

You must always act:

- in compliance with the Societies Act;
- in support of the Purpose in our constitution;
- in accordance with our bylaws; and

- in the best interest of our Association

You must meet the qualifications to be a Director:

- when you are elected or appointed to serve on the Board; and
- while you serve on the board.

You will work with the rest of the Board to oversee the management of the Association's activities and affairs.

You will:

- be prepared for the Board meetings;
- attend the meetings;
- participate in the discussions; and
- fully support decisions once they have been made

You will serve until the earliest of when:

- your term ends;
- you resign;
- you are deemed to have resigned; or
- you are removed from the board.

If you are in a conflict of interest position, you:

- must immediately let the Board know that you are or may be in a conflict of interest position;
- may be asked to provide more information to the Board;
- must not act in any way to influence the discussion or vote; and
- will not vote on the matter;

If you are found to be in a conflict of interest position, you:

- will pay an amount equal to any profit you made unless after disclosure, the contract or transaction was approved by:
- a Board resolution, or
- a special resolution by the members.

You will:

- not be paid for your services as a Director; but you will be
- reimbursed for reasonable costs (i.e., travel, accommodation) incurred when carrying out director duties.

The Association will provide:

- liability insurance to pay for all reasonable costs of a legal proceeding or investigative action.

In return, you will not be liable for any consequences of your actions if you:

- act honestly and in good faith;
- rely on information that comes from what should be a reliable source; and
- exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent individual would exercise in comparable circumstances.

The Association will also provide:

- indemnification insurance to cover costs if you are taken to court for your actions except if you:
- don't act in accordance with all applicable legislation; or
- you are found to be negligent or in default, breach of duty or breach of trust
